

Procedural Law
Module 5 Study Guide

What is a vehicle in the context of search and seizure law?

From a procedural law perspective, how are vehicle searches like searches of premises?

Describe the “vehicle” exception to the general search warrant requirement.

Describe the mobility requirement of the vehicle exception.

What rules govern the searching of vehicles under police control?

What is the scope (what areas may be searched) of the vehicle exception?

Describe the rules governing vehicle searches incident to a lawful arrest.

What rule governing vehicle searches did the Court articulate in Knowles v. Iowa (1998)?

What rules govern an Inventory Search by police?

What is the scope of an inventory search?

What rules govern where should Inventory Searches be conducted?

What rules govern the search of containers in the context of a vehicle search?

What does reasonableness have to do with container searches?

What rules govern abandoned property?

What rules govern Trash?

What rules govern narcotics field tests?

What basic rules govern computer searches?

What are the special considerations of computer warrants?

What constitutional principles apply to wiretapping and other forms of electronic surveillance?

What rule regarding intercepts with permission did the Court articulate in United States v. White (1971)?

What rule governs “wearing a wire” by officers and informants?

What rules govern CCTV surveillance?

What limits did the Supreme Court establish for the use of Thermal Imaging by police in Kyllo v. United States?
